Balai Pemuda Alun-alun Surabaya

Also called Alun-alun Surabaya (the town square of Surabaya). Built during the colonial period in 1907, Balai Pemuda has an eclectic style, a mix of styles of neo-gothic, renaissance & classical romantic. Balai Pemuda was a recreation center for the Dutch community for parties & dancing, this heritage building now becomes an art cultural center with a wide open public space for the locals known as Alun-alun Surabaya.

Kota Lama Surabaya Surabaya Old Town

Surabaya Old Town is the area with a strong colonial-era, Chinese, and Melayu architectural style, which is now accentuated by its pedestrian and street lighting style. Feel the antique atmosphere here in Surabaya old town as your footsteps walk along the street that was once the trading center of Surabaya City. Formerly located close to the Kalimas Riverport and serving as Surabaya's trade artery, it's no wonder you'll find lots of shops here before it was moved to Tanjung Perak by the colonials. We recommend you visit on weekdays since you can snap a lot of pictures when the colorful old shops are still open.
